

Privacy Policy

Because the privacy of our members and other visitors to this website is of the utmost importance, Riverside Health System Employees Credit Union has adopted the following Privacy Policy:

General Information areas:

We do not collect information about you or your website activity. When you visit our website and explore, you do so anonymously. We are not planting "cookies" to collect information about you or your web habits. We are not collecting your email address or other information.

On Line Account Information:

We use 128-bit encryption to secure any account activity that you may perform on your account. This information is never sold, given, or disclosed to third parties unless required by law.

Registration Areas/Email addresses:

We may request that you voluntarily register your email address for purposes of participating in online surveys, or correspondences. We may use this information to provide to you, the member, via email, product or service information of the Riverside Health System Employees Credit Union. It will never be sold, given or disclosed to third parties, unless required by law.

Linked Internet Sites:

Riverside Health System Employees Credit Union provides from time to time hyperlinks to other sites. Although we select these links with care and service to you, our member, those links will have their own policy and standards. Thus in accessing hyperlinks those services are provided "as is, as available" without warranty, express, or implied and you use those links at your own risk and choice.